

Ladder 6

I can blend sounds to read new words.

I can read my high frequency and tricky words.

I can use expression in my reading.

I can tell someone about what I have read including some details.

I can talk about clues that I find in words and illustrations in a book.

I can talk about how a text is organised.

I can talk about the adjectives used in a text.

I can explain why a text has been written.

I can talk about the features of different types of text.