

Ladder 8

I can confidently use different strategies to help me read with fluency, expression and understanding.

I can begin to find evidence in a paragraph of the text to answer questions.

I can look for a clue in the text to explain how a character is feeling.

I can use some features to explain what sort of text I am looking at.

I can begin to pick out language features that the writer has used a lot of; e.g. adjectives, speech.

I can explain what I think about a character and why.

I can explain what the writer thinks.

I can explain the similarities between this text and another by the same author.

I can explain how I know when and where a text is set.

I have read some fiction, some non-fiction and some poetry.