

Ladder 9

When reading aloud, I can confidently read with fluency, expression and understanding.

I can find evidence from a paragraph of text to answer questions.

I can give a clue from the text to explain how a character is feeling.

I can talk about some features the writer has used to organise the text.

I can pick out language features that the writer has used a lot of; e.g. adjectives, speech.

I can talk about what a writer wants me to think about a character.

I can talk about the writer's main purpose for writing.

I can explain how this text is similar to others that I have read; e.g. plot, topic, author or characters

I can find features of a text that tell me when and where it is set.

I have read some fiction, some non-fiction and some poetry.